ST. CLAIRSVILLE, OHIO, THURSDAY. APRIL 5, 1855.

THE BELMONT CHRONICLE. and ice-cream" said Mrs. Sparrow grass, du- less because of her teachings by these sim- | But it is neither the expense or trouble of The Battle Field on the and Grand -PUBLISHED EVERY THURSDAY MORNING, peet of apples and cider instead. The mo-

Office on North side of Main Street in the New Masonic Hall, a few doors East of the Court House, and a few doors West of the Norten House.

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION.

f paid within three months,
f paid after that time,
Papers discontinued only at the option
this arrearages are due.

TERMS OF ADVERTISING.
Every subditioned insertion.
Every subditioned insertion.
Learly advertisements one column,
Last column.

Ty All Bitters addressed to the editor must be paid to TPNo paper discontinued until all arrearages are

POETRY.

A DOLLAR OR TWO.

With cautious step as we tread our way through, This intricate world as other folks do, May we still on our journey be able to view The benevolent face of a dollar or two.

For an excellent thing Is a dollar or two. No triend is so true As a dollar or two. Through country or town, As we pass up and down, No password so good As a dollar or two.

Would you read yours-if out of the bachelor's crew And the hand of a pretty female sue.
You must always be ready the handsome to do, Although it would cost a dollar or two.

Love's arrows are tipped With a dollar or two. And affections are gained With a dollar or two. The best aid you can meet In advancing your suit, Is the eloquent chink Of a dollar or two.

Would you wish your existence with faith to imbue And enroll in the ranks of the san stified few. To enjoy a good name and well-cushioned new. You must treely come down with a dollar or two.

The gospel is preached For a dollar or two. And salvation is reached By a dollar or two. You may sin sometimes. But the worst of all crimes Is, to find yourself short

MISCELLANEOUS.

From Putnam's Magazine.

LIVING IN THE COUNTRY.

EY ME. SPARROWCRAS.

Mrs. Sparrowgrass, on Friday next, and I to come for us on account of business. think a party is a very pleasant thing in the country. There is more sociability, more hospitality, warmer welcome, less dress, and the siky tall. He is a pup, and much ca-

Mrs. Sparrowgrass said she believed he had gone to California. 'And that lady who prized confectionary above good-breeding, and went home with her pockets well stuffed with mottoes, in seen about our village.

go to the party. Put my best shirt and the went to bed at peac; with all mankind. white waistcoat in Monday's wash. Never I love to lie a bed in these autumnal mora-mind expense. Getme account of bread, and lings, and see the early smallight on those

'I think,' said Mrs. Sparrowgrass, 'that a party in town is nothing but an embarrass-

"True," said I. 'Don't you remember," said she, 'what a you forgot the japonica!'

"Certainly." ready, how we used to wait for fear of getting there too early, and after we did reach the house, how we always got in a corner, and made happy wall flowers of ourselves, and some old friend!

"Of course 1 do:" 'Where nobody took any notice of us!'

you had made a point of wearing cotton lace see a white-breasted covey coming up in the palpable double entendre I felt that secret sat- mity. Here and there are troops of shining isfaction which every man must feel when he one with warm illuminated wings, and oth has said a good thing. It was lost upon Mrs. ers creeping along in stadow with spectral Sparrowgrass. 'Here,' she continued, 'we pinions, like evil spirits. Yonder schooner expect a simple, old fashioned entertain. is not an unfair image of humanity; beating ment,' Then I chimed in-'No gas-lights to up against adverse winds with one black and make your eyes ache-no patent leather to one white sail. That dogged old craft, just make your feet ache-no fasaionable follies emerging from obscurity into sunlight, is but to make your heart ache-and no overheat- a type of some curmudgeon passing from poves, ill-ventilated rooms, boned-turkeys, game, ice-cream, Charlotte Russe, pastes, champagne, and chicken-salad, to make yourhead from the light of prosperity into the gloom pouring them in upon us like a torrent, and drop it upon white paper, and put it in a ache next morning. There will be oysters of misfortune. I do not love the country adding to our present burden.

biously. 'I wish,' said I, 'there was a pros-ment I get is side the doors, and breathe the mingled odors of oysters and geraniums, it _____,I rould be content

To see no other verdure than its own; To teel no other breezes than are blown Though its tall woods." but we must succumb; we will go like plain, sensible people, won't we!' 'If you were me, what would you wear!' said Mrs. Sparrowgrass.

Then Mrs. Sparrowgrass could to find her best handkerchief, and I dropped five sper-maceti blotches on the new silk dress looking for it. Then she found the hankerchief.

Then our girl said that the new d g had run off with one of my boots. Then I had to go out in the mid in my slippers after the dag.—

Then I got the boot and put it on so as to make that sure. Then I we waited for the make that sure. Then we waited for the carriage. We were all dressed and ready

Then Mrs. Sparrowgrass could to thind her best handkerchief, and I dropped five sper-make the diameter of the small end, and a perseverance in the application to support their pretensions, not to be resisted but a man left to work the guns," He was bin. Paine to praise Him, sent an angel who determined the name of the small end, and a perseverance in the application to support their pretensions, not to be resisted but a man left to work the guns," He was bin. Paine to praise Him, sent an angel who determined the man left to work the guns," He was bin. Paine to praise Him, sent an angel who determined the man left to work the guns," He was bin. Paine to praise Him, sent an angel who determined the man left to work the guns," He was bin. Paine to praise Him, sent an angel who determined the man left to work the guns," He was bin. Paine to praise Him, sent an angel who determined the man left to work the guns," He was bin. Paine to praise Him, sent an angel who determined the man left to work the guns," He was bin. Paine to praise Him, sent an angel who determined the man left to work the guns," He was bin. Paine to praise Him, sent an angel who determined the man left to work the guns," He was bin. Paine to praise Him, sent an angel who determined the man left to work the guns," He was bin. Paine to praise Him, sent an angel who determined the man left to work the guns," He was bin. Paine to praise Him, sent an angel who determined the man left to work the guns, "I believed him out of prison. I believed him out of prison. I sent the man left to work the less style, than there is in the city." Here ressed by the young ones. One day he went Mrs. Sparrowgrass handed me an engraved off to the butcher's and came back with no publish some of the opinions of General card of rather formidable dimensions, which more tail than a toad. The whole bunch of Washington, upon the propriety and policy I must conless looked anything but rural.— young 5 parrowgrasses began to bawl when of appointing foreigners to office. The fol-I have a natural horror of parties. "I won- tail. I did not know him when I came home lowing, are taken from Spark's publication der," said I, in the most playful kind of bit. and he could not recognise me-he had lost of the Washington papers. as they all inthat young lady that never sings herself, but of a dog that looked as if he had been where might be expected from one whom the tongue It is an exact copy of a letter written by "And that gentleman," I continued, 'who Butcher said, "he supposed I was something hearts of his countrymen"—They are as folwas a stranger, to me, that always wanted to of a dog-fancier, and would like to see my lows; be presented to some young lady that I didn't dog look stylish." I said on the contrary, that I had bought him on account of his handsome silky tail, and that I would give tendollars to have it replaced. Then the idea of having it replaced seemed so ludicrous that I could not restrain a smile, and then the butcher caug'it the joke, and said defiance of the eighth commandment, and the there was no way to do it except with fresh putty. I do love a man that can enjoy a joke Mrs. Sparrowgrass said she knew the la- so I took a fancy to that butcher. When I dy to whom I slluded, but she assured me got home and saw the dog, I thought less of she was yet in New York, and had not been the butcher, but I put a piece of black courtplaster on the dog, and it improved his appea-'Then,' said I, 'Mrs' Sparrowgrass, we will rance at once. So I f rgave the but her, and bring me my old white gloves. I am going grim old palisades. A vast stretch of rock, gaunt and gray, is not a cheerful view from the south window Shut your eyes for a few minutes, and now look. That faint red cornice, reaching rough-cast along the rugged tops, ten miles or more, from Closter to Tillietudlem, is not unpicturesque. And alfues I used to make about getting my hair though we have not the odor of spring liles fixed, and how put out I was that night when and summer roses, breathing through the windows, yet there is something not less delightful to the sense in this clear frosty at-'And then, when we were all dressed and mosphere. Below, the many-colored woods that bourgeon on the sides seem to retain the verdure of early spring in those cool depths of shadow. As the sunlight broadens on the crags, the i'lusion disappears, and we beho d once more the brilliant vagaries of vegetation the hectic hints of yesterday. I wish Kensett could see that pure blue sky and vonder melancholy sloop on the river, working her Then what difference did it make how I pas age down with bricks from Haverstraw, was cressed-whether I were Honiton lace and a sail like an expended rose leaf. It is a pleasant thing to watch the river craft in 'I am afraid,' said I, 'Mrs. Sparrowgrass.if these autumnal mornings. Sometimes we you would not have been invited.' At this distance-from shore to shore a spread of di-learned from watching the old wood-sloops on tensive in its nature and fatal in its conses writing fram Brownsville in February last the river.

den path, and several cart loads of gravel in and professions, there is no use of encours at present roam ever it.

At the Resides, the pipe was of an agement.

I am, &c.,

At the Resides and professions, there is no use of encours at present roam ever it.

At the Resides, the pipe was of an agement.

G. Washington.

G. Washington. his cess-pool. Besides, the pipe was of an agement. said it would be ridiculous without simp or all the way for the whole length. As I said galloen, but perhaps I would prefer velvet ribbon, an account of the flounces? I told her she had better get the velvet ribbon, and omit the gimp and galloen. Mrs. Sparrowate grass said, "Very well;" and the next day another boy brought another boy brought another boy brought another boy brought another get bill, which convinced me that extrast form the whole length. As I said the way for the whole length. As I said the way for the whole length. As I said the way for the whole length. As I said this, my carpenter smiled, and said he never bloom, and account of the flounces? I told him no, that the gimp and galloen. Mrs. Sparrowate she date to a reigner applying I reigne er bill, which convinced me that extras form well, and the next week he came with two an important item in rural architecture- horses and an edifice in his cart that looked and thrown the dog away. Of course I took my stick, and went to see the butcher.—

of calumny dare not touch, and one who was, General Winfield Scott, then a captain in the army, during a sejourn at his home in Peters first in war, first in peace, and first in the burgh, Va, on the 18th of June, 1811, just in war, first in peace, and first in the burgh, Va, on the 18th of June, 1811, just in war, first in peace, and first in the burgh, Va, on the 18th of June, 1811, just in war, first in peace, and first in the burgh, Va, on the 18th of June, 1811, just in war, first in peace, and first in the burgh, Va, on the 18th of June, 1811, just in war, first in peace, and first in the burgh, Va, on the 18th of June, 1811, just in war, first in peace, and first in the burgh, Va, on the 18th of June, 1811, just in war, first in peace, and first in the burgh, Va, on the 18th of June, 1811, just in war, first in peace, and first in the burgh, Va, on the 18th of June, 1811, just in war, first in peace, and first in the burgh, Va, on the 18th of June, 1811, just in war, first in peace, and first in the burgh, Va, on the 18th of June, 1811, just in war, first in peace, and first in the burgh, Va, on the 18th of June, 1811, just in war, first in peace, and first in the burgh, Va, on the 18th of June, 1811, just in war, first in peace, and first in the burgh, Va, on the 18th of June, 1811, just in war, first in peace, and first in the burgh, Va, on the 18th of June, 1811, just in war, first in peace, and first in the burgh, Va, on the 18th of June, 1811, just in war, first in peace, and first in the burgh, Va, on the 18th of June, 1811, just in war, first in peace, and first in the burgh, Va, on the 18th of June, 1811, just in war, first in peace, and first in the latest in the burgh, Va, on the 18th of June, 1811, just in war, first in peace, and first in the latest in the lat

MORRISTOWN, May 17th, 1777, I am. &c.

G. WASHINGTON. [Vol. IV,, p. 432.

MIEDLEBANK, June 1, 1777. To the same-You will, before this can reach you, have seen Monsieur Decendary; the salvation of the army depends, to a for- less would please you more. Since my re- nations.

To Gov. Morris, Esq -Dear Sir:-The de sign of this is to touch cursorily upon a subject of very great importance to the well-being of these States; much more so than wil appear at first view. I mean the appoint ment of so many foreigners to office of high cank and trust in our service. The lavish manner in which rank has hith erto been bestowed on these gentlemen will pouring them in upon us like a torrent, and drop it upon white paper, and put it in a he river.

Quences to be apprehenced, and that is the says:

Our neighbor has been making an improvedriving of our officers out of the service, and I have just returned from a visit to the WAR DIPARTMENT, Feb. 4 17 19.

An Interesting Letter.

yet write my history with my sword!

moderate own, on a tin plate.

To MAKE DENOS DROPS .- Grate three !em-

Every reader, we doubt not, will agree wi h us that the subjoined letter is not only der," said I, in the most playful kind of bit-ter irony, "wl ether we will meet out here his organ of recognition. He reminded me culcate sound and just doctrine, and such as sentence of it makes it a remarkable one. — ville J armal relates the following:

> one year before the declaration of war. The A couple of merry fellows, one of them a I am now near the end of my journey. It is Mex cons well as Kanzas, for an area large letter was andressed to an old friend in this distinguished member of Congress from a a coincilence worth soring that on the 13 h enough to embracathe twelve largest States city, and is say so possession of the son, J. Southern State, and the other a distinguished of April, 1794, I first sail d from Scotland, in the present Union. It may be settled for To Richard Henry Lee, -Dear Sir: I take L. Edwards, Esq. Great events make great ex editor from Kentucky, concocted a letter and on the 13 h of April, 1854, I first enter. fifty mit loss of people, who will some day the liberty to ask you what Congress ex-men. It seems to have been the purpose of purporting to be addressed by a young lady ed my dwelling in this place, being sixty pepulate it, twice as many people as now inpects I am to do with the many foreigners the young soldier to leave a service of inac- to a very fine looking gentleman. It was years complete. The yard of my dwelling is havit our Union. Not only so, but the charthey have at different times promoted to the tion and return to the law. We are left in got up in first-rate style. The pretended young separated from the Presbyterian church and acter of their industry, their intelligence, their rank of officers, and by their last resolve two doubt whether he would have become as re- lady set forth there'n that she had several its place of skulls by a fence. If it so wills condition, their laws, their habits, their povto that of Colonel. These mea have no at. nowned at the bar as he has in the field; but, times seen the gentleman she was address- heaven, here my bones will rest "till time etty or opulence, and the very grade of their tachment to the country, farther than inter- be that us it may, war soon followed, and the ing, that she was captivated by his fine face shall be no more." est binds them. Our officers think it ex- young captain, by a course of service unex- and manly form, that her heart was deeply The partner whom God has given me, is a prople of the North. tremely hard, after they have toiled in the ampled in brilliancy and duration, has risen touched by all she saw and heard of him, that light to my path-making smooth my track. We apprel and the press is inert, indifferservice, and have sustained many losses, to step by step in the career of distinction, until she must make his acquaintance before his to the Banks of Jordan. She hath sknown out, treatherous to its duty at this juncture. have strangers put over them, whose merits, at the end of forty-four years he finds him- departure from the city, that she had hoped the Scriptures from her youth up." A thank- I ad the presses of the North would publish perhaps are not equal to their own, but whose self, on this venerated anniversary, crowned effrontery will take no denial; it is by the with the highest military honor which the ness as it was the first imprudent act at her born 18th February, 1773. You see:
>
> GRANT THORNERN. cause must be supported, and not by a few his history with his sword," a history free circles of the Capitol, that a e would be on from a stain and which every American may a certain square of a certain street at pre-iseread with pride. Intamanutis fulget honori- ly 12 o'clock on the following dey in a sta - We extract the following interesting le the colonization, and give it aid and direc-

"Yours truly, WINFIELD SCOTT. "Lewis Eowards, Esq., Washington." House of Representatives, the House would Inther.

ons, with a large piece of loaf-sugar, then slowly. It can be raten cold, pls symbols. There are many things to be them I most Gread; there is an evil more ex- A correspondent of the N. O. Picarens. LETTER FROM GRANT THORIERN. Strad, but being discovered, was dragged ing in a cess-peol at the end of his garden.—

The object of it is to carry off the superfluous water from the house. It was a great

To John Adams, Vice President of the U. former field a cannon ball is occasionally years. During that period, I have been one an experience of the house by suckness! then for her profligate life. convenience, he said, "on wash days." One S., Dear Sir; Mr opition with respect to picked up, which is the only indication that ly one day confined to the house by sickness; then for her political genius, was the grandebjection might be urged, and that was, after imigration is, that except of useful mechan- it was ever used, except for the peaceful Goodness and mercy have followed me ait mother of Nicheles. Her instrument in the every heavy rain, he found a guily in his gar- ics and some puriouser description of men purposes of grazing the large herds which the days of my life; I we the giver of all the selection of her instrument in the that young lady that never sings nersell, but is always so passionately fond of musicing.

CONGRESSIONAL MORALITY .- The Louis-

It is an exact copy of a letter written by wanted at all merely, and had taken his, and thrown the dog away. Of course I took of calumny dare not touch, and one who was, General Winfield Scott, then a captain in the weeks ago by a practical joke in Washington quaintance sake. He died at Greenwich, of the question may be settled for all time. It may be settled for all time.

City upon a number of nice men of Congress. deprising treatments, in 1809. We were infinitely amused three or four lodgings. Carver took him in for od no Ka zas the whole nor hera emigration new, dress which she described with great part on secount of musices in the Royal Pamily of tion.

lurity, and that she hoped and trusted he Russia, from the Pintadelphia Ladger, Peressume, June, 1811.

will permit to throw the feather out of my cap crats, and Know-Nothings, walking to and and resume it in my hand. Yet, should war fro, all gazing carnestly in every direction come at last my enthusiasm will be rekin- and at every female figure to discover the obdled; and then who knows but that I may ject of their anxious search. we concluded, that, if a few more copies of their mission. The progof the letter had been sent to members of the by a son consenting to the murder of his depot, at every city, along every river and ca-have had to adjourn for the want of a quorum. The incident to which we first allude, was scrape the agar into a plate, and add half a half a teacupful of the best rice, put it in a D., 1719. The Privas was heatile to the

From the N. Y. Observer. | Lim. Alexie, knowing what this meant, fled WRITTEN ON HIS SSD BERTHPAY.

Something very plain, my dear.'
Then,' said Mrs. Sparrowgrass, 'I have piece of soap, and a handkerchief. I said To John Q. Adims, American Minister at still visible, but so overgrown with brush and Princ. Perhaps there fives not a man on where as the person who, when the Empenothing very plain, suitable for a party, and that if he had made a square wooden trough, Berlin—Sir, You mow, my good sir, that if undergrowth that if he had made a square wooden trough, Berlin—Sir, You mow, my good sir, that it undergrowth that they can scarcely be followed. One or two trees still show marks grave, except myses. Carver and I were tim with his own hand. A brother of this have cleared itself, and then I thought it play foreigners when it can well be avoided of the strife, and a few shreds of cloth, old fellow-laborers in the same shap. Paine master went to Italy, where a Princess of 'I am afraid,' said I, (after the second day's would be a good thing for me to have such either in the cancel and Carver were born in the same town in the Romanuff line resided, whom Catharine hard shopping in town) your dress is going a one myself. Then I had a cess-pool built. There is a special self importance in all also to be found in the chapteral; but there England; Pame and I boarded with Cerver. force in consequence of her better title to to be too plain, my dear. Every hour brings at the bottom of the wall, under the bank, foreign flicers the cannot be gratified with. is nought else to show that here was the Lorent hears Carver, his wife, and Paine, as the throne, and having invelged the poor girl a fresh boy, with a fresh bunile, and a fresh by which is about one hundred and fifty feet from bill, to my office." Mrs. Sparrowgrass said, that if I thought so, perhaps she had better get aomething expensive when she went to buy the trimming." I tell have I thought a respectable lady, who died eleven subsequently by an important of the solution of the wall, under the bunk, foreign efficers the cannot be gratified withis about one hundred and fifty feet from out doing injustic (t, meritorious characters scene of the most closely contested lights of we four sat by the free on a winer night, tends of the free on a winer night, tends to find a morning out doing injustic (t, meritorious characters scene of the most closely contested lights of we four sat by the free on a winer night, tends to morning out doing injustic (t, meritorious characters scene of the most closely contested lights of we four sat by the free on a winer night, tends to morning out doing injustic (t, meritorious characters scene of the most closely contested lights of we four sat by the free on a winer night, tends to morning out doing injustic (t, meritorious characters scene of the most closely contested lights of we four sat by the free on a winer night, tends to morning out doing injustic (t, meritorious characters scene of the most closely contested lights of we four sat by the free on a winer night, tends to morning out doing injustic (t, meritorious characters scene of the most closely contested lights of we four sat by the free on a winer night, tends to morning out doing injustic (t, meritorious characters scene of the most closely contested lights of we four sat by the free on a winer night, tends to morning out doing injustic (t, meritorious characters scene of the most closely contested lights of we four sat by the free on a winer night, tends to morning out doing injustic (t, meritorious characters scene of the most closely contested lights of we four sat by the free on a winer night, the little with the first of the most closely buy the trimming. I teld her I thought eight inches in diameter at the end nearest titled to all the offices in the gitt of their Go. shade of sweet-scented mimosa or amidst the rich a respectable hely, who died eleven subsequently by an inundation of the Neva. to the house, and the end meanest titled to all the offices in the gitt of their Gosend it would be ridiculous without trimming. She send it would be ridiculous without timming or titled to all the offices in the gitt of their Gotungled brush-wood tungled brush-wood
tungled brush-wood
oil the way for the whole length. As I said
G. Wasmington.

Old Fort Brown, where the first hostile treatment. He then married a doughter of market of Paul the First, father of Nicholass,

M xican heighbors make it becessary. smugglers, and field to America. He was riod of this blandy trail. This fort, together with new Fart Benan made Secretary to the private Committee of infant. But his elder carriage. We were all dressed and ready but no carriage. We exercised all the pabut no carriage. We exercised all the patimes we can be seen as time in the patimes we can be seen as time in the patimes we can be seen as time in the patimes we can be seen as time in the patimes we can be seen as time in the patimes we can be seen as time in the patimes we can be seen as time in the patimes we can be seen as time in the patimes we can be seen as time in the patimes we can be seen as times as time in the patimes we can be seen as times as time tience we could muster, on account of the build an aqueduct I will be a little more care- with justice or pru ence to promote these of his grandchildren. Major Brown has left after his arrival. He found letters urging carriage and listened at the windows to see ful in the figures.' ,Sparrowgrass,' said he, military fortune hunters at the hazard of our but two serviving children, both daughters, him on to Washington. (then a four day's if we could hear it. Two months have e- pointing to the pipe, did not you tell me army. Baron Steuben, I now find is also and married to officers of the army. By a journey.) He started next morning. At

"I be leve we have very little village news her heart. The wags had between thirty a victim to some conspiracy. There would territory. As for danger, it is mere begawhat his real expectations were, I do not to give you, ner to I know what would please know, but I fear if his appointment is equal you in that to what I have been told is his expectation.

"Of myself—that personage who fills so these copies to between thirty and forty coin of murder was not extraordinary, whom Missouri bullies had offered a price. The it will be attended with unhappy consequent large a space in every man's own imagina- members of Congress, selecting those of it is considered how many of the royal line chivalry had no reward to pay, but bore the ces, to say nothing of the policy of entrusttion, and so small a one in the imagination course who were known to entertain a very of Russia have died forcible deaths. What sting ng rebuke which the offer conveyed ing the department on the execution of which of every other—I can say but little; perhaps exalted opinion of their own personal fasciwith the dissensions among the Imperial with meakages and decency. There may be family, and what with the conspiracies on rate, but let a single freeman be killed, by eigner who has no other tie to bind him to turn to Virginia, my time has been passed in Everything being thus arranged, the two the interests of the country than honor. I easy transitions from pleasure to study, from jokers called upon us and another young genwould beg leave to observe that ty putting study to pleasure; in my gayety forgetting tleman, explained what they had done, and cord, since the days of the Roman Cord, since the Mr. D. at the head of the artillery, you will lose a very valuable officer in General Knox, who is a man of great military standing sound judgment and clear conception, he will resign if any one is put over him.

I am, &c. G. Washington, I am, &c. G. Washington, but you will casily conceive my military ardot has saffered abstement. Indeed, it is my design, as soon as circumstances will permit, tothrow the feather out of my cap and resume it in my hand. Yet, should war from the size and destroyed some rival of the studies of the studies connected with the student forgetting my gay-invited us to get into their carriage, ride with them to the point of assignation, and see the sights. We unhesitatingly consent-tor of the Russian Government, that it was unitary ardot has saffered abstement. Indeed, it is my design, as soon as circumstances will permit, tothrow the feather out of my cap and resume it in my hand. Yet, should war from the size and dog, and destroyed invited us to get into their carriage, ride with the student forgetting my gay-invited us to get into their carriage, ride with the student forgetting my gay-invited us to get into their carriage, ride with the student forgetting my gay-invited us to get into their carriage, ride with the point of assignation, and see the sights. We unhesitatingly consent-tor of the Russian Government, that it was and degrades the Roman Casons.

Take the first two putting my gay-invited us to get into their carriage, ride with the student fingle and the student forgetting my gay-invited us to get into their carriage, ride with the student forgetting my gay-invited us to get into their carriage, ride with the student forgetting my gay-invited us to get into their carriage, ride with the student forgetting my gay-ent of the Roman Casons.

Take the days of the Roman Casons.

Take the days of the Roman Casons.

Take the student fin the student forgetting my gay-ent of the student forgetting my gay-ent of the student forgetting my gay-ent of the student forgetting my gay-ent of the secret execution of Alexis, only sen of dence to be, by "guns, bells, bonfires and il. A VERY NICE PEAIN RICE PUDDING .- Take Peter the Great, by order of his father, A. la minotions .- Toledo Blade of two e vils-either to make us despicable teaspoonful of flour; mix well, and best it inmoist sugar. Fill up the dish with milk and ing the old Boyer party, which adhere to late ics dence of WEBSTER, & some acres of water in equal proportions, and bake very the ancient usages and customs in his out the homestead surrounding it, not included in try. For this Peter resolved to dis merit the sale of property to take place on the 28th succession, tried by accret judges, and barba-Winsted, Conn. Feb. 18, 1855. rously put to death. The next great tragedy mingled odors of oysters and geraniums, it will carry me back to town, and for one evening, at lest, I shall forget that we are living in the country.

Our neighbor has been making an improve- driving of our officers out of the service, and I have just returned from a visit to the ment in his house. He has had a drain made throwing not only our own army but our milbaute grounds of Palo Alto and Respect denote those fields which redund so much to and sering are not so scate, I am not sense on his wife, who immediately ascended the smuggiers, and find to America. He was riol of this blondy tragedy, Nicho as was an Then we had a dress maker for several days like a truncated shot tower. I neked him Instructions of the Secretary of War to and Brownsville, takes its name from the Congress, and took an oath of office to keep was a young man, and was, it is generally and the stitching went on by sun-light and what that was! He said it was the big end the Inspector General, for the cavary, the gallent Major Jacob Brown, who fell mortal- their secrets. He broke this outh by divid- believed, aware of what was about to occur. lamp light, and on the last day Mrs. S. dis- my pipe. When he laid it on the ground on covered that she had nothing for her head, its side, I walked through it, and could not and the new hound was the new hound and the new bonnet was taken to pieces to get at the feathers for a coiff are. Then when the night fell, there fell, too, a soaking rain; and I had forgotten the carriage, so I was obliged to go a mile in the mud to order one bliged to go a mile in the willage livery stable. Then I had the foot, and he had made it about a foot the range of the closing days of Alexander. It is assert to engage none except natives for this cor, s, and those only who from their known character and fidelity may be trusted.

(WHOLE NO. 951

The officers, my dear sir, on whom you was the cause of much trouble in Congress. The distant booming of the guns on the field or of Congress in 1774 or 5.) This treachery was the cause of much trouble in Congress. The distant booming of the guns on the field or was the cause of much trouble in Congress. The distant booming of the guns on the field or was the cause of much trouble in Congress. The distant booming of the guns on the field or was the cause of much trouble in Congress. The distant booming of the guns on the field or was the cause of much trouble in Congress. The distant booming of the guns on the field or was the cause of much trouble in Congress. The distant booming of the guns on the field or of Congress in 1774 or 5.) This treachery was the cause of much trouble in Congress. The distant booming of the guns on the field or of Congress in 1774 or 5.) This treachery was the cause of much trouble in Congress. The distant booming of the guns on the field or of Congress in 1774 or 5.) This treachery was the cause of much trouble in Congress. The distant booming of the guns on the field or of Congress in 1774 or 5.) This treacher, and those only violent death. It is certain the distant booming of the guns on the field or of Congress in 1774 or 5.) This treacher, and those only violent death. It is each to engage out the dismissed with disgrate. (See the Journal to engage out the dismissed with dismi from the village livery stable. Then I had the foot, and he had made it about a foot the tary merit, will not submit much, if any lonto walk back, as the man said "it was out;" foot, as near as I could judge. "Sparrowbut he promised to send it for us right straight grass," said he, a little nettled, "jest take the man said "it was out;" foot, as near as I could judge. "Sparrowitying wounded, to the summons of the Bress, and the right of speech, these cases of assassination, it was at first them, who have nothing more than a little ican General to surrender the Fort, is worthy by means of the guilletine. He quarrelled given out that the Caur died of spoplexy, nor off. Then I held to get dressed over again. Your pencil and put down eight inches."— plausibility, unbounded pride and ambition, of being remembered: "I shall never surrent with Robbie, and was chalked for the guillo-did the truth appear until the lapse of years best handle to the small end, and a perseverance in the application to sup-

Other questions may be important which new agit ite the public mind, but all of them together are of not a tithe of the importance lapsed, and it hasn't come yet. Next day was there, so that the party had been to elegant affair. That everybody was there, so that we concluded the carriage had not been able to come for us on account of business. that I did see a original idee come out at the big end."

Washington's Opinions.

It may not be amiss at the present time, to publish some of the opinions of General Washington, upon the propriety and policy of appointing foreigners to office. The full Washington, that is the first time think the Baron an excellent officer, I do most devoutly wish that we had not a single the marked went of energy in the Mexican people as compared with their Angle-Saxon neighbors. Scarcely a single new building has been erected since the city was evacuated by the American Army. The blanketed citizens lounge on the corners of the street, and energian to those interested, but the marked went of energy in the Mexican people as compared with their Angle-Saxon neighbors. Scarcely a single new building has been erected since the city was evacuated forth from every face; mirth ceased; ne by one they went out, leaving Paine alone on his chair fast asleep. Nixt day here every face; mirth ceased; ne by one they went out, leaving Paine alone on his chair fast asleep. Nixt day here every face; mirth ceased; ne by one they went out, leaving Paine alone on his chair fast asleep. Nixt day here every face; mirth ceased; ne by one they went out, leaving Paine alone on his chair fast asleep. Nixt day here every face; mirth ceased; ne by one they went out, leaving Paine alone on the consideration of them can be postponed, when must devoutly wish that we had not a single people as compared with their Angle-Saxon neighbors. Scarcely a single new building has been erected since the city was evacuated forth from every face; mirth ceased; ne by one they went out, leaving Paine alone on the consideration of them can be postponed, when must since the city was evacuated forth from every face; mirth ceased; ne by one they went out, leaving Paine alone on the consideration of them can be postponed, when must since the city was evacuated for the consideration of them can be postponed.

All the restrictions to return to New York.

When Aren Barr returned f barbarians of the North, as they have done the last quarter of a century.

When Agen Burr returned from Europe, whither he had fled after his duel with Hame the last quarter of a century.

When Agen Burr returned from Europe, whither he had fled after his duel with Hame the had fled after his office in Nessaustreet, near it is true, admit a slave State from Kanzas. my seed store. From him I received the ac- Pacy are as determined and fixed on that Count as above stated. maker as they are against the annexation of Paine, on his return, was unable to find to kingdom of Dahomey. By pouring into Monpens in the Royal Family of Rus- the companies can be joined, they can doubnul, is worthy of celebration, as old John Adams declared the Declaration of Indepen.